NAACP-Scout effort to serve at-risk youths

July 25, 2008

The Maryland State Conference of the NAACP and the Baltimore Area Council of the Boys Scouts of America will collaborate to create a program serving at-risk youths, the groups announced yesterday. The pilot program, called "The First Class Camp," will attempt to increase the number of mentors available to young people in the Baltimore area. The program will be tested in Maryland but could be emulated throughout the nation, if successful. The groups will formally announce the program Tuesday. John Fritze
