

OrchKids music program moving and expanding

June 3, 2009

The after-school OrchKids program sponsored by the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra will be expanding and moving to a new city school in the fall. The program, which provides children with instruction in playing musical instruments, started its pilot year at Harriet Tubman Elementary last fall with 30 first-graders. Because Harriet Tubman is closing at the end of the school year, the program will be moving to Lockerman Bundy Elementary, where most of the current participants will enroll. There, the program will expand to include all first- and second-grade students. The children who participated in the pilot year received music lessons and tutoring three afternoons a week. They will show off what they have learned at a concert at 6 p.m. today at Harriet Tubman.
